Recommended Template Constitution

Introduction to the constitution

This recommended template constitution is designed to help UNA groups consider the structure and governing documents for their group. It was written by UNA-UK's staff team in consultation with UNA-UK Elected Trustees and approved by the UNA-UK Board. It is designed as a tool for UNA groups to use, UNA groups are not required to use this template exactly as written. UNA groups may adapt this template to best serve their group, providing the minimum requirements set out on the Basis of Recognition document are still met and not contradicted.

It is not mandatory for UNA groups to use the text suggested and, of course, different circumstances will mean that some elements are added to and others not needed. UNA groups should consult the Basis of Recognition in conjunction with this document, when making amendments to the governing structure of their group, to ensure minimum requirements, necessary for ongoing recognition, continue to be observed.

We hope that this document, along with the Association's Basis of Recognition and UNA-UK's strategy, are useful governance resources so that all UNA groups can continue their excellent work of connecting the United Nations with people in their communities and campuses across the UK.
